Bulimia Nervosa Market Research Report - Global Forecast till 2025

Description:

Global Bulimia Nervosa Market Research Report: Information by Disorder Type (Purging and Non-Purging), Drug Type (Antidepressants, Antipsychotics, and Others), Route of Administration (Oral, Intravenous, and Others), End User (Hospitals & Clinics, Homecare Settings, Specialty Centers, and Others), and Region (the Americas, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and the Middle East & Africa)—Forecast till 2025

Market Scenario
The global bulimia nervosa market is expected to exhibit significant growth over the forecast period. The market was valued at approximately USD 429.84 million in 2018 and is projected to register a 4.9% CAGR over the forecast period.

Bulimia nervosa is an eating disorder that is characterized by eating a large amount of food (binge eating) in a short period. The disorder is also known as bulimia. Bulimia nervosa may cause various life-threatening and serious complications, such as heart problems, tooth & gum decay, anxiety, self-injury, dehydration, and digestive problems.

Factors such as the rising prevalence of psychological disorders, alcoholism, and diabetes are expected to drive market growth. According to an article published by the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), 19.1% adults in the US experienced mental illness in 2018. Moreover, drastically changing lifestyle is also expected to boost market growth.

However, factors such as the lack of drugs specifically for the treatment of bulimia nervosa and lack of awareness regarding the treatment options are expected to hamper the market growth.

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Eurostat, White Papers, Company Presentations, and Annual Reports

Geographically, the market has been segmented into the Americas, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and the Middle East & Africa. The Americas is anticipated to dominate the global bulimia nervosa market owing to the rising prevalence of bulimia nervosa. According to data published by the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) in November 2017, 43.2% people suffering from bulimia nervosa sought treatment for their disorder in the US.

Europe is expected to hold the second-largest share of the global bulimia nervosa market owing to the presence of major market players such as AstraZeneca and GlaxoSmithKline plc.

Asia-Pacific is expected to be the fastest-growing regional market owing to the rising awareness regarding mental disorders and high incidence rate of bulimia nervosa.

The bulimia nervosa market in the Middle East & Africa is expected to hold the least share during the forecast period.
